HOMELESSNESS HELPLINE

Helpline #: 540-358-5801

The Homelessness Helpline is a 24/7 helpline dedicated to assisting those that are currently experiencing or at risk of experiencing homelessness. The helpline serves all of Planning District 16 (City of Fredericksburg and the counties of Caroline, King George, Spotsylvania, and Stafford). The helpline is focused on serving individuals and families who are:

- Sleeping outside (including in a car, tent, or abandoned building)
- In need of emergency shelter
- At immediate risk of sleeping outside or needing emergency shelter (within 14 days)

Callers will be assessed for all community services and be referred to appropriate services. All individuals and households must contact the homelessness helpline to access emergency shelter and targeted prevention services as the helpline is the only access point for these services. Multiple languages can be served through the use of interpretation services. The helpline partners with the following agencies for referrals:

HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION SERVICES (FREDPREVENT!)

Administered by Loisann's Hope House on behalf of the Fredericksburg Regional Continuum of Care and its partners, FredPrevent! provides services to families with children and individuals throughout Planning District 16 (Stafford, Spotsylvania, King George, Caroline, and the City of Fredericksburg). These targeted prevention services aim to divert households at imminent risk of sleeping outside or needing emergency shelter from ever experiencing an episode of homelessness by providing them with limited financial and case management assistance as well as the tools and resources needed to remain permanently housed and stable in housing. Those in need of prevention services must call the Homelessness Helpline to be referred and scheduled for intake.

LOISANN'S HOPE HOUSE

Hope House is an emergency shelter that is designed to improve the quality of life for families by helping them move from homelessness to permanent housing. Educational opportunities and support services offered.

MICAH ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES
